PENSIONS.

Rulings and Decisions by the Assistant Secretary of the Interior and the Commissioner of Pensions. Assistant Secretary Bussey last week overruled the former adverse Departmental decision in the pension claim of the widow of Frank and reported the bill to the House. Upon a Beckof, late Major of the 2d Mo. Art., and directed that the widow's name be placed upon the pension-rolls. The decision which is thus reversed was based upon the ground that records of the War Department show that the claimant's husband was dismissed from the service by order of the President of the United States. The alleged incurrence of the double nguinal hernia in the manner and at the time and place set forth in the original declaration for a pension is conceded as correct and as amusing. These findings, however, were disapproved by the Major-General commanding the department, who forwarded the record to the President with the recommendation that the accused be dismissed from the service. The recommendation was approved by the President, who ordered his dismissal.

The conclusions in this decision are reviewed at some length by the Assistant Secretary, who

"The dismissal of Beckof from the military service, despite the acquittal of him by the court-martial, was simply a penalty for an aleged offense against the service; the infliction of the penalty exhausted the power of the Government to punish him for said offense, and it bore no relation to a claim for pension based upon disabilities incurred by him in line of

Here is a good-natured scramble for a cake of Pears' Soap which only illustrates how necessary it becomes to all people who have once tried it and discovered its merits. Some who ask for it have to fight for it in a more serious way, and that too in drug stores where all sorts of inferior soaps are urged upon them as substitutes. But they can always get Pears' Soap, if they will be as persistent as are these urchins.
